Grow Up With the Children.

A busy woman once said that she never knew how much she could accomplish until she became the companion of her young sons, sharing their sports and limiting her own working hours to theirs. Today they are young men, and she looks like their sister. There are other young mothers of grown men, and they are rather forunidable rivals to younger women. The sons unconsciously make comparisons, generally in favor of mother. It is heautiful to "grow up" in this fashion with one's children, to keep pace with with one's children, to keep pace with them in new studies and new thoughts, something like a second youth. We are so quick to put away youthful things unless we have some such incentive to hold them.

A graceful carriage is as necessary to good health as to good looks. Certain exercises will do much for the woman who hasn't always cultivated the limbit of standing and walking correctly. A great aid in the development of the bead as high as possible and then try to make the chest meet the chin. This will make a graceful carriage, smaller stomach, a fuller chest and more lung power. To rench either above the head as far as possible or to the floor without bending the knees will decrease the size of the waist and round it; also fill in the hollows in tront of the arms.

THIS IS THE FLOUR

The PILLSBURY CO. was awarded the three highest prizes at the World's Fair, St. Louis, as follows:

PILLSBURY'S BEST FLOUR was awarded the Grand Prize for the best Flour

Bread made from PILLS-BURY'S BEST FLOUR was awarded the Grand Prize for Bread.

THE PILLSBURY CO. was awarded the Grand Prize for the best exhibit.

These three prizes were the Grand or Sweepstake Prizes and are away above any other prize. This shows plainly that PILLS-BURY'S BEST is in a class all by itself and should be evidence enough for any good housekeeper that PILL SBURY'S BEST is the Best Flour made and the flour that she should use if she has her own interest at heart-Don't let anyone tell you some other flour is as good.

Every good grocer will recommend and sell PILLSBURY'S BEST to his customers because he wants to give them the best value for their money. It is different with the unscrupulous dealer. He will recommend the kind that he makes the most profit on.

When you order flour order PILLSBURY'S BEST and see that you get it. If your dealer does not keep it, it is his own fault, and you should go to the grocer who thinks enough of your trade to keep the best flour and the flour that you want.
